Chancery Causes: Richard Spurlock vs Elizabeth Spurlock

Mursey, Payne, Pace, Blevins.

CA-Divorce

T-Vicus

Migration

To the Honorable W.T. Miller, Judge of the Circuit court of Lee county:

Humbly complaining your orator, Richard Spurlock, would respectfully represent that for more than twelve months he has been a resident of this state and county. He would also represent that in the year 1890 he was married to one Elizabeth Munsey, with whom he lived for some time. He did all in his power to make a loving dutiful and providing husband, was loyal to his marital vows; but his said wife, unmindful of her obligations taken at the hymenial altar, committed adultery. She left her husband, your orator, and moved with another man to the state of Kentucky, where she has since resided in open, notorious and disgraceful adultery, as your orator is informed, believes and here charges.

Your orator here alleges that since his knowledge of his wife's unfaithfulness to him that he has not lived with, or cohabited with her. He here alleges that there is no fraud or collusion on his part in his wifes ^{+ not by his procurement or connivance} said acts, but charges that they were done without his knowledge or consent, and to his great distress and shame when they were learned by him. And he also alleges it occurred less than five years

The object therefore of this bill is to obtain a divorce dissolving the bonds of matrimony heretofore contracted and now existing between your orator and his said wife Elizabeth Spurlock; and his prayer is that she be made a party defendant to this bill and be required to answer the same, and that upon a final hearing of this cause the relief here sought be granted, together with all other, further and general relief as the equity of his cause may demand.

May spa. issuee, &c., and he will ever pray, &c.

Against (In Chancery.

Elizabeth Spurlock, Defendant.

Richard Spurlock

Against (In Chancery.

Elizabeth Spurlock.

The depositions of John Payne, Richard Spurlock taken on the 2nd day of November 1895, at the office of Orr, Blankenship & Ewing, in the town of Jonesville, Virginia, before me, A. B. Munsey, Commissioner in Chancery for the Circuit Court of Lee County, Virginia, which depositions when taken are to be read in behalf of the Plaintiff in a certain Chancery cause now pending in the Circuit Court of Lee County, Virginia, wherein Richard Spurlock is Plaintiff and Elizabeth Spurlock is Defendant, and which case there has been an Order of Publication, completed.

Present: Blankenship & Ewing, counsel for Plaintiff.

John Payne a witness of lawful age being duly sworn deposes and says:

Ques. 1. Are you acquainted with the parties in this suit?

Ans. I am.

Ques. 2. State all that you know about the character of Mrs. Elizabeth Spurlock with reference to the commission of adultery?

Ans. It was generally known in the neighborhood where she lived that she was a woman of ill fame. I know the fact that she had illegal sexual communication with men other than her husband. After Richard her husband left his wife, she lived in a house with another man by the name of Pace, there was no other woman in the house when Mrs. Spurlock and Pace lived together. There was only one bed in the house where they lived.

Ques. 3. Has Richard ever lived with his wife since his separation from her.

No, he has not.

Ques. 4. How long has the plaintiff been a resident of this county?

Ans. The plaintiff has resided in this county for about three years to my knowledge.

And further this deponent saith not.

John Payne

Richard Spurlock another witness of lawful age being duly sworn says:

Ques. 1. State what you know about the adultery of Elizabeth Spurlock, if you know her, and whether the you have ever lived with her since these acts came to you knowleged?

Ans. I am plaintiff in this case and know Elizabeth Spurlock. I suspected that my wife was guilty of adultery and on inquiry found that my suspicions were founded on facts. I then at once left her and have not resided with her since.

Ques. 2. Was there any agreement or collusion on your part as this adultery, or any wrongful acts on her part?

Ans. No there was not. I would have lived with her and cared for her as best I could had she not done these things. After leaving her I learned that her conduct in this line had been much worse than I had at first expected. I was never ^a false to my marital vows. I was much _^grieved at these things, having married my wife in good faith.

The first I ever suspicioned was when something got wrong with my penis and I went to see a Dr. who told me that I had the "clap". I knew that had not touched any other woman and this led me to investigate.

And further this deponent saith not.

Ques. 2. State all that you may ^{know} about the character of Mrs. Elizabeth Spurlock with reference to her virtue, etc?

Ans. I know that she is not a virtuous woman; I know that she has ^{had} sexual intercourse with other men than her husband since her marriage to him. I have seen her out in the bushes and old houses with men after night and day time both for the purpose of prostitution and lewdness.
